

MOREHOUSE COLLEGE PROJECT: IMHOTEP SCHOLARSHIP

NATIVE HAWAIIANS, PACIFIC ISLANDERS, SOUTHEAST ASIANS, AND

OTHER UNDERREPRESENTED ASIAN AMERICANS

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JANUARY 31, 2011

The Asian & Pacific Islander American Health Forum (APIAHF) and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) are providing four scholarships to qualified Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, Southeast Asian and other underrepresented Asian American undergraduates (juniors and seniors) and recent graduates (class of 2010) for the Project: IMHOTEP internship program for summer of 2011. APIAHF is working with community partners to promote Project: IMHOTEP as part of their efforts to increase the number of NHPI, and Southeast Asian public health and health care professionals. Applicants who are not selected for this scholarship are still eligible for the general selection process by Morehouse College.

Background: Project: IMHOTEP is designed for underrepresented minority students who are interested in pursuing careers in public health, with particular focus in Biostatistics, Epidemiology, and Occupational Safety & Health. Interns gain valuable experience in conducting public health research with health professionals at the CDC. The program is open to students with a major/minor in biology, chemistry, computer science, engineering, mathematics, physics, and any health related science.
